Official Diary

Thursday, 2 August 1951

Attended Staff Meeting, Director's Meeting and PRC Meeting in the morning.

25X1

Talked to [redacted] about the handling of country-type, overall PC projects.

25X1

Talked to Mr. Douglass and asked him to be up here tomorrow at 11:30. General Gruenthaler is coming in and will want to discuss the type of intelligence which we should send to General Eisenhower.

25X1

Received a note from [redacted] stating that he will be interested in talking to [redacted]. Called [redacted] but believe it will be difficult to get him except on a part-time basis which would not be satisfactory. He will call me back next week.

25X1

Asked Mr. Pforzheimer to prepare a memorandum on the background of Senator Humphrey. Also asked Mr. Wolf if he could have the whole story on the rejection of Senator Humphrey's friend by tomorrow morning.
